

General path integrals and stable SDEs

Leif Döring (Universität Mannheim)

Abstract

In recent years there have been several approaches towards the understanding of path integrals for Markov processes. We will discuss a general theorem characterizing the finiteness of such integrals. As an application we give Engelbert-Schmidt type theorems for stable SDEs.